Hail, Mary! Six Thousand Titles and Praises of Our Lady
– Florent E. Franke, M.D.

Foreword

During my recuperation from a gall-bladder operation at St. Mary's Hospital in St. Louis, Missouri, in 1945, I began collecting titles of Our Lady. In 1950 I published a small pamphlet of 555 titles, which I had compiled from the Raccolta, a book listing prayers indulgenced by the Church. My pamphlet, Titles of Our Lady, had an Imprimatur from Archbishop Ritter, of St. Louis. I sent a few copies to Pope Pius XII, the reigning pontiff at that time, and received a cordial letter in reply. This was an incentive to enlarge the collection. Until recent years I discarded all titles without an Imprimatur. Since then I have included titles of Mary found in the Documents of Vatican II, and other sources from high ecclesiastical authority.

The object of the collection is to make Mary better known and loved. Pope Pius X said: "Can anyone fail to see that there is no surer or more direct road than by Mary to unite all mankind in Christ, that we may be holy and immaculate in the sight of God?" (33-137). Mary is the chosen daughter of the Heavenly Father, mother of the Divine Son and spouse of the Holy Spirit. She is the Queen of Heaven according to the teaching of the Catholic Church. If God honored her so highly, we need not hesitate to honor her, provided we do not give her divine honor which belongs to God alone. From on the cross, Christ gave her to us as our Mother. She is able and ever ready to help us. Since this is approximately the two-thousandth anniversary of her birth (the exact date is debatable), it seems to be an appropriate time to publish this collection of her titles and praises.

The titles listed in this collection are not all of equal significance.. Of greatest importance are those from the Scriptures and the Liturgy of the Church. Many of the titles are found in the prayers and writings of canonized saints. Other titles come from shrines of the Blessed Virgin. Some of the shrines are sites of apparitions, such as Lourdes and Fatima. Other titles have been derived from devotional pamphlets and books. They express, in a variety of beautiful ways, the role of Mary in our salvation.

Some of the titles are subject to misinterpretation. For example, the Blessed Virgin is invoked by the Church under the titles of "Advocate," "Auxilatrix," and "Mediatrix". According to Vatican II, no creature is to be classed with the Incarnate Word and Redeemer. "But just as the priesthood of Christ is shared in various ways, both by sacred ministers and by the faithful, and as the same goodness of God is in reality communicated diversely to his creatures, so also the unique mediation of the Redeemer does not exclude but rather gives rise among creatures to a manifold cooperation which is but a sharing of this unique source." (87-82)

The titles are divided into categories, each indicating some particular role or attribute of Mary. If there are not many titles of one kind, they are listed under "Miscellaneous." An introduction precedes a few of the categories. Within each category the titles are arranged alphabetically, followed by their reference and page numbers. Several categories are divided into two alphabets. The first consists of titles whose first word corresponds with the key word of the category. The second alphabet contains all other titles in that category. A uniform system of capitalization and punctuation was adopted.

Each title has a reference number, followed by the page number. The reference numbers refer to the books and other references from which the titles were taken. A list of the references, with bibliographic information, can be found in the back of the book.

I am particularly indebted to my wife, Margaret, and my daughter Eileen, who spent countless hours editing, checking and proofreading, to make this collection suitable for publication. A thanks is also due my granddaughter, Catherine Smythe Silvey, for her professional advice on the layout of the book. To my nephews, William and Michael Conrad, experienced printers, who volunteered to print my collection of titles for publication, I owe special gratitude. Also the facilities of The Clarion Printing Company Inc. of Columbia, Illinois, owned and operated by the Conrad family, were generously placed at my disposal. To everyone who has contributed to the production of this book, as well as to all the family and friends who have contributed through the years by their interest, prayers and encouragement, I am sincerely grateful.

Advocate

Who needs an advocate? All of us need an advocate before God. We were born with original sin. Many of us have committed serious sins since our baptism. All of us have committed venial sins, offending God. At the time of our death and on judgment day we will have to give an account to a Just Judge. Some of us because of our grievous sins may despair. If we do so, we are foolishly placing limits to the infinite mercy of God. In his boundless generosity he has provided his own Son to plead for us from the cross, "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do." If some fear the majesty of the Godman, he has provided his own mother, a creature like us, only spotless, to be the advocate of even the most wretched and abandoned sinners if they turn to her in their affliction and place themselves in her care.

Jesus was obedient to her on earth and He will grant her requests in heaven. St. Alphonsus, in his book on the Glories of Mary, cites a declaration by Mary to the Venerable Sister Mary Villani, "After the title of Mother of God, I rejoice most in that of Advocate of sinners." How comforting it is to us poor sinners to have as our advocate, the one most powerful before the throne of God, his own sweet mother. In every Hail Mary we ask Mary's intercession. Besides the rosary, let us employ other means to honor her in a special manner, such as being enrolled in the scapular and wearing it every day. There are many devotions to the Blessed Mother. Choose those which you have an opportunity to carry out with devotion, be it great or small. It may be the Litany of the Blessed Virgin, the Magnificat, the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin or only a Hail Mary. Perhaps you can join the Legion of Mary or the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin.

Most particularly you will please the Divine Son and his Mother by frequent or, if possible, daily mass and Communion. Often it is not as difficult as it would seem. It may mean going to bed an hour earlier and missing a television or radio program or a late show, so you can get up an hour earlier. Would you not make such a sacrifice if you were promised a great fortune or good health for many years? Yet what you receive in Holy Communion is incomparably greater. You receive the Lord who possesses all and who becomes your guest. For some people, choosing a home close to the Church may enable members of the family to get to Mass and Communion often during the week.

Take a step towards Mary; she will take many towards you. You need her, she wants you. God himself assured victory to Mary and her children. He said to the serpent in Paradise, "I will put enmity between you and the woman and between your offspring and hers." Mary is prophetically foreshadowed in that victory over the serpent which was promised to our first parents after their fall into sin. In Baptism you directly or through your sponsors renounced Satan and all of his works. This placed you on Mary's side, the winning side since God guaranteed her the victory. Our position in this life is not secure, since we may fall into sin, so let us with full confidence and assurance stay close to Mary so that we will not sin, or if we do sin, that we will repent and be restored to God's favor. Satan has been rebuffed and defeated innumerable times by Mary and she is ever ready to help you, if you give her the opportunity. Pray daily that you may have the grace to call on her in your time of need.

Lady

Lady is a title of respect for a woman. Mary is the Lady of Ladies, deserving our greatest respect and admiration. She is the mother of the God-man, the Queen of angels and saints. Even the devils in hell are subject to her. But matching her dignity is her ability and desire to draw us to her Divine Son. She is not distant but close. She knows and anticipates our needs and is ever ready to help us. Nor is her love entirely disregarded by her children. Witness the innumerable churches and shrines dedicated to her. The greatest artists have devoted their talents in painting and sculpture to honor our Lady. Countries, cities and homes are placed under her protection. Islands, rivers and towns bear her name. Pilgrimages have been made over the centuries to her shrines, sometimes but a few pilgrims or on other occasions they may number over a million. She is God's Lady. She is our Lady.

Model

Through her long, hidden life at Nazareth, Mary gives an example to all the world's busy and unsung parents. She is particularly a model for mothers, having been chosen from all women by God the Father to be the mother of His Only Begotten Son. Her perfection must be beyond our imagination for her to hold such an exalted position. She had been termed by the Church "worthy mother of God." According to the poet Wordsworth, she is an "example of all womanhood, so mild, so merciful so strong, so good, so patient, peaceful, loyal, loving, pure." She is a model of virgins whose lives are dedicated to the glory of God. She is a model and pattern for all the holy apostles, martyrs, doctors and confessors. She is a magnetic model, not only pointing out our path but attracting us toward it. May this model and teacher of holiness in all things great or small be our constant inspiration leading to our sanctification.

Name of Mary

We see in the gospel of St. Luke that an angel announced the name Jesus was to bear. Similarly the name of John, son of Zachary and Elizabeth, was announced by an angel. It would be surprising, then, if God would leave to chance or human discretion the name of the woman who was the chosen daughter of the Eternal Father, the mother of the Only Begotten Son, and the spouse of the Holy Spirit. According to the Venerable Mary Agreda, an angel appeared to Joachim and Anne, revealing that they would have a daughter and that Mary should be her name. "Our chosen One shall be called MARY, and this name is to be powerful and magnificent. Those that shall invoke it with devout affection shall receive most abundant graces; those that shall honor it and pronounce it with reverence shall be consoled and vivified, and will find in it the remedy of their evils, the treasures for their enrichment, the light which shall guide them to heaven. It shall be terrible against the power of hell, it shall crush the head of the serpent and it shall win glorious victories over the princes of hell." (58- 269, 270).

It is important to take advantage of this great help in our many needs. Let us pray that we will ever have the grace to invoke her name, so that we may avail ourselves of the benefits of her assistance. Particularly at the hour of death may her name be on our lips and in our hearts.

Patroness and Defender

Mary is our queen. She sits on a throne at the right hand of her divine Son to whom all power is given in heaven and on earth. She is queen because her Son is king. She is a queen unrivaled because she resembles the God-Man as much as is possible for any creature. She is queen of the Heart of Jesus. The Son who subjected Himself to her on earth is not less attentive to her in heaven. She is the queen of the heavenly court, of all the angels and saints.

It was said of her, "The Queen stood at thy right hand in gilded clothing, surrounded by variety." For all the graces, privileges and merits of the other saints were united in Mary, according to the Abbot of Celles. The angels, even the greatest, feel privileged to carry out her wishes. The saints in heaven come to her with their requests, that she obtain them from her divine Son. She is the queen of purgatory which is said to have been emptied at the time of her assumption, the occupants accompanying her in her triumphal entry into heaven. She is the queen of the universe, mistress of all creatures.

She is the queen of the Church, and of the apostles. She is the queen of an army of virgins. Thousands of nuns bear her name. She has been acclaimed queen of various countries such as Ireland, Poland and Viet Nam. Religious orders such as the Carmelites, Franciscans, Jesuits and Marists hail her as their queen. Lay organizations such as the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin and the Legion of Mary are named in her honor. She is queen of the patriarchs, prophets, martyrs, confessors and of all hearts. She is the queen of all nature, which obeys her commands. Even the demons in hell are subject to her and the serpent lies in wait for her heel.

Our queen is most beautiful, gracious, gentle, merciful, holy, humble, immaculate and invincible. She is the queen of the scapular and the most holy rosary, by which her devoted children show their affection for her.

Queen

Mary is our patroness. We call upon her to protect, support and care for us. This she is able to do because of her wisdom and power and her interest in us. She loves us dearly and is eager to help us if we will just call upon her. As individuals we seek her as our patroness. So she is called the patroness of vocations, and of studies. She is our protectress against the assaults of the devil, the tower of David, impregnable wall. She is patroness of homes, of all who wear the scapular and of the sodalities.

Members with certain hazardous occupations, such as missionaries, airmen and bull fighters, have chosen her as their protectress. She is the patroness of Catholic countries, and of our own United States. She has been called the salvation of the Roman people. She is the mighty and glorious protector of the Holy Church.
